

"Whatever ground is gained for Christianity in one generation can be totally lost in the next if the former generation fails to impart passion for the things of God to their children. So parenthood is a great blessing-not only to us but to God as well-because through our children the hope of God's people taking dominion and advancing His kingdom in the earth can live on, growing with each generation." –Mike Shreve

Prayers & Declarations for Our Daughters

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1 Salvation springs up in her. Isaiah 45:8	2 She walks in the way of love like Christ loves her. Ephesians 5:2	3 Lord, I pray that my daughter would enjoy and not rush her childhood.	4 Lord, I pray that Your Word is my daughter's life compass.	5 May she be an agent for bringing Your kingdom to earth.	6 May she only be desperate for You, Lord.
7 Lord, may Your Word take root and thrive in my daughter's heart.	8 My daughter is on a pathway towards righteousness.	9 Lord, I pray my daughter knows who her enemy is. Ephesians 6:12	10 Lord, help me be a strong, godly example for my daughter.	11 I pray my daughter will appreciate and respect the elderly.	12 I pray my daughter trusts that God's plans trump the enemy's plans. Genesis 50:20	13 I pray my daughter would have faith like Noah. Hebrews 11:7
14 Lord, thank you for blessing me with the gift of motherhood!	15 Lord, help me be more concerned about my daughter's character than her ego.	16 Lord, please replace any pride in my daughter's heart with humility.	17 Her grace and knowledge of Jesus is growing. 2 Peter 3:18	18 Lord, I pray my daughter will seek my wisdom and experience when making life decisions.	19 Lord, please provide protection and a way out of any relationships my daughter feels trapped in.	20 Lord, help my daughter understand the power of her choices.
21 Lord, show my daughter how valuable she is.	22 Holy Spirit, be my supernatural eyes, ears, and intuition for my daughter's needs.	23 Lord, I pray my daughter will be a bright spot in this dark world.	24 I pray my daughter will fight for justice and mercy.	25 Lord, thank you for the great plans You have for my daughter's life. Jeremiah 1:4-10, 29:11	26 Lord, I pray my daughter accepts your free, no strings attached gift of salvation. John 3:16	27 I pray my daughter will grasp the significance of Your forgiveness and not let bitterness dwell in her heart.
28 I pray my daughter has a passion to selflessly serve others.	29 I pray my daughter will stand up to bullies and protect the innocent.	30 I pray my daughter will bring the best of herself to all she does.	31 May my daughter have vision to see beyond her present circumstances.
